It's been a rewarding time for Encore Tickets who have just driven off with two of the year's top coach awards – and not for the first time.

First of all it was two wins in two years at the UK Coach Awards for Encore as Best Service Provider – hotly followed by Ticket Supplier of the Year which Encore has won 3 out of 5 in the Coach Monthly gongs.

Said managing director John Wales: "It is a real honour not only to win these awards, and even more important to be able to show our partners in the coach industry that we have been able to maintain our high standards over the past 12 months".

Paying tribute to all the award winners at the ceremony, UK Coach Awards director Chris Cheek said: "We did not invent the short-list – all the names came to us because your customers, took the trouble to nominate you: that is something you can be very proud of."

Added John Wales: "We believe we have won these award again thanks to the efforts of our great groups sales team headed by UK sales manager Richard Woolliss, and because of the innovative schemes for coach operators we have introduced, such as our indemnity scheme to buy back unused tickets and our offer to refund parking costs for any coach operator booking one of our dinner and show packages".

Established in 2000 Encore Tickets is the largest independent theatre agent selling over 1.5 million tickets per year – more than 1 in 10 of all tickets sold for London's major theatres. It employs over 75 staff speaking 18 different languages, is a fully bonded ticket agent and a member of the Society of Ticket Agents and Retailers.
