ENCORE'S RICHARD WOOLLISS HAD
IN THE BAG FOR CTC DELEGATES

Lee Mead To Star From May 2010

Wicked is wicked. That's official – and guess who had bags of tickets for delegates to the Coach Tourism Council's annual conference: Encore's Richard Woolliss, of course.

Just voted the Best West End Show, Wicked will be getting a further boost in May with the arrival of 'Joseph' favourite Lee Mead in the role of 'Fiyero'.

Said Richard Woolliss, Encore Tickets Head of UK Sales: "Wicked continues to be a sure fire favourite for groups. There's no doubt that availability will be difficult once Lee Mead steps on stage which is why we have secured major ticket supplies for all CTC members and group clients.

Lee will be staying with the show for a year, and has a big following among group audiences following his huge hit in 'Joseph and his Technicolour Dreamcoat'.

Ends.
