

ENCORE BOOSTS GROWTH IN RHS FLOWER SHOWS WITH BLOOMIN' GOOD GROUP RATES

Budding gardeners are a growing business for groups – and Encore Tickets has just the right prices for this year's Royal Horticultural Society shows to make them flower.

As well as great ticket prices Encore is also offering group travel organisers and coach tour operators the opportunity of packaging the Hampton Court Flower Show with a visit to the palace itself for £38.50 – or £37.50 if you book before the end of February.

Said Encore UK sales manager Richard Woolliss: "We saw huge demand from the groups market for these RHS shows last year so would definitely recommend GTOs and coach tour operators to book early. This is our second year of selling RHS tickets and we are delighted at the support we have had".
