Trade-only theatre and attraction ticket supplier Encore Tickets, has appointed a new UK Sales Manager: Richard Woolliss.

He said: "I look forward to being able to help more coach operators and group organisers increase their profits by selling more theatre and attraction tickets.

"There is a tremendous amount of growth in this market. In 2004 the West End of London had its best year since records began, and we now have a fantastic line-up of shows to continue this trend, all of which can be booked very quickly and easily with Encore".
