

JERRY HALL MOVES INTO HIGH SOCIETY ENCORE MOVES THE TICKETS

Encore Makes It Easy For Group Organisers

Encore Tickets is making it easy for group organisers to take advantage of what is set to be Jerry Hall's latest West End hit show: 'High Society'.

The show opened at the Shaftesbury Theatre on October 1 for a six month run after a highly successful UK tour, and Encore Tickets is offering group organisers a one call facility for all seats on 020 7XXX XXXX.

With music and lyrics by Cole Porter, plus Jerry Hall's celebrity status, the show has a very appeal and is ideal for groups, many of whom will remember the famous 1950's High Society film starring Grace Kelly, Bing Crosby and Frank Sinatra.

Said Encore Tickets Managing Director John Wales: "This show has the ideal combination of star quality and fabulous songs to make it a perfect night for groups. We have.....supply of tickets....great prices....."

High Society is due to run until March 2006 with evening performances on Mondays to Saturdays, plus matinees on Tuesdays and Saturday.

Encore Tickets Limited is a member of the Society of Ticket Agents and Retailers. This is a self regulatory body which operates within guidelines supported by, amongst others, the Office of Fair Trading, the British Tourist Authority, and the London Tourist Board.
